

Joint
IADVL-DSB and ACSI
Dermatosurgery Update

Sunday, March 14, 2010

Old Lecture Theatre Block, Safdarjang Hospital, New Delhi

Dear colleague,

We are glad to announce that the IADVL, Delhi State Branch and the Association of Cutaneous Surgeons of India are jointly organizing a Dermatosurgery Update at Old Lecture Theatre, Safdarjang Hospital, New Delhi on Sunday, March 14, 2010.

Dr. Niti Khunger, the Scientific Chairperson has drawn up an exciting programme covering important everyday procedures including acne surgery, hair transplantation, lasers, fillers, Botox, mesotherapy and innovative measures to improve results in skin surgery. The stress will be on demonstrating practical aspects of the procedures with videos. Two lively sessions will bring together a number of experts who will share their successes and the complications they have faced. Enough time has been provided for audience interaction after each presentation.

The registration fee has been deliberately kept at an accessible level so that a large number of delegates can benefit from the meeting.

Make sure you are there!
